

ELKS MEMORIAL SERVICES

Johnstown Elks Home

SUNDAY, DECEMBER SEVENTH

1924

3:00 O'CLOCK P. M.

Motto of Our Order

"The faults of our Brethren are written upon the sands; their virtues on the tablets of love and memory."

When to the flowers so beautiful

The Father gave a name,

Back came a little blue-eyed one

(All timidly it came)

And standing at its Father's feet,

And gazing in His face,

It said in low and trembling tones,

"Dear God, the name thou gav'st me

Alas! I have forgot"

Kindly the Father looked him down

And said "Forget-me-not."

THE Grim Reaper, called Death, has caused the removal from our midst of one hundred and sixty-two of our Brothers, and we meet with our sister Lodges to mourn for the absent ones who shall meet with us no more this side of Eternity. We Elks are bound together by that electric current which unites the hearts of all mankind and makes the misfortune of one the sorrow of all. While the Order exists our absent Brothers will be remembered.

The Spirit of the Elks

by O. Lawrence Hawthorne

More than benevolent giving of alms,
Our Charity searches to find
Broader conceptions of service that bring
Assistance to all humankind:
What will give comfort to hearts in distress?
What offers lasting relief?
Such is the scope of our program of cheer,
Banishing hardships and grief.

Justice to us teaches progress for all,
And equal contentment in life;
Justice means liberty, won and preserved
So we accept as a tenet of right
With minimum heartache and strife.
That each must be ready to make
Personal sacrifice, seeking the paths
Of peace for humanity's sake.

Do unto others as you would have them
In friendliness do unto you—
This is the watchword of Brotherly Love,
A fellowship noble and true.
Faults of our brothers we write on the sand,
And memory! So do we strive to obey
The will of our Father above.

Faithful to brother, to country, to God—
No grander allegiance may claim
Loyal observance and manly esteem!
And so in Fidelity's name
We of the Order of Elks pledge our lives
To service in true brotherhood.
Steadfast our purpose and constant our creed:
To overcome evil with good.
